

Marc LaComb

Dumping any waste into our waters even if it has gone through a scrubber still is putting harmful toxins in our waters no matter how well it has been scrubbed. We need to keep emissions of any size and type from destroying our environment.