

Nicholas Kovalcik

I am in favor of banning scrubbers and reducing the amount of waste water that goes into Puget Sound. It will result in less harm to the southern resident orcas and other marine wildlife that call the area home. It will be good for the health of the people who live near Puget Sound.