

nancy blastos

Our oceans are being polluted by fuel from cruise ships, transport vehicles and private boats. This is causing an increase in temperature which is killing ocean life: mammals, fish and the natural environment. It is time to decrease the amount of cruise ships in this area.