

judy Mickey

If we do NOT act now to stop the abuse of our waterways, we will be left with nothing to fix. I see it in Florida. Red algae that blooms now constantly has created a mess: dead sealife, tumors in fish, dead manatees, toxic situations that cause skin issues in humans. etc. They hide it...but if you work in hospitals.....you see it.