

2539 Leone

We must protect Puget Sound from being destroyed by the constant pollution and discharge of deadly toxic waste. Our marine life will suffer - especially those most vulnerable orca's that call this place home. Think about what you are doing - these precious creatures were here and called it home way before we came. Stop destroying our earth!