

Lael Bradshaw

There should be a limit on how many ships are allowed in our waters per day including the straights. It would raise the cost for the ships but our waters are worth the protection.

Thank you for your time.