

William Seidel

As a traveler and a voyager, I want my voice heard on this seemingly minor issue. If an institution as trivial as Cruising can wantonly pollute our seas, degrade the environment and wellbeing of every person on this earth, we, as a race, are committing suicide, indeed.