

Mario E Martinez

Business as usual is decimating our sea creatures big and small and it's our duty to protect them from Cruise Ships that harm and kill them without regard for Marine Life, a sustaining source of food and work for a sizable group of our population. Please, let's all help save life on the oceans.