

Scott McClay

Ban scrubbers--implement Amend #2 to ban scrubbers.

Currently cruise ships can dump their scrubbed pollutants into waterways like the Puget Sound--which simply changes air pollution into water pollution. Ships have to stop burning HFO which is terribly dirty.

Cruise ships need to become less toxic to the environment they supposedly honor-- ban scrubbers now, make the industry clean up its act.