

Cheryl Demmon

The oceans has so much pollution as it is. Cruises ships can not be allowed to continue to dispose waste water into the oceans. It is negligent, and is affecting the health of our oceans, and is imperiling the fish and wildlife that inhabit the seas. Many of the people of the world use fish for their primary source of protein. This jeopardizes their health and well being. This must stop.