

Susanita Nichols

Ban scrubbers in Puget sound.

As someone who is completely addicted to cruising, I believe the cruise industry has a place. However turning air pollution into water pollution in a delicate aquatic habitat is not the answer. There must be a better way, and the cruise industry must find it. I support amendment #2.