

Jim Pounds

Always prioritize what precious little is left of nature over yet another gross profit motive. If we don't change our priorities, this planet will rid itself of us and rightfully so.