

Fred Mursu

I have relatives that live in the Sound & i have visited there. We think it is a special place & as such should be treated with great care. Scrubbing has never been good for our planet & never will be good so we adamantly call on you's to seriously curtail this or better yet not allow scrubbing in the Sound at all. Peace