

Ramona Ponessa

Cruise ships dump an amazing amount of pollutants into any water where they are allowed to do so-when you have thousands of peoples' waste, there is no waters that aren't destroyed by that dumping. Please quit allowing our waters to be used as a cloaca for big worthless industries like cruise lines. I have lived next to the ocean my entire life and have seen first hand what damage cruise lines do to an environment.