

Ann Soule

My question during today's webinar pertains to use of the term "hazardous" materials in our code - and the specific relation of that term to dangerous waste as defined in law. Today you suggested using the term "critical materials" for any chemical that can contaminate groundwater, as done in Spokane. Please add this info to the Guidance if it's not already there. Thanks