

Joseph DeBin

THIS EMAIL ORIGINATED FROM OUTSIDE THE WASHINGTON STATE EMAIL SYSTEM
- Take caution not to open attachments or links unless you know the sender AND were expecting the attachment or the link
Nutrient General Permit Lead Ellie Ott, With rising water temperature and endangered salmon, orcas, and krill, we need to reduce nutrient runoff and pollution into the Puget Sound to save our ecosystem. The goal should be to reduce and eventually eliminate nutrient runoff pollution. Thank you, Joe DeBin
Joseph DeBin jdebin@gmail.com 4214 NE Glisan St
Portland, Oregon 97213