

Michael Stockin

This law would be exceedingly harmful to small family farms. I urge the state to reconsider this legislation. Food security depends on the supports and cultivation of small, local agricultural assets. Please do the right thing.