

Sean Ziemathis

Individuals, villagers and towns like ours have held livestock in pens, barns and fields for centuries without any harm to the environment. My comment is an absolute NO to this absurd idea of taking away our independence.