

Sherrie Zollinger

While I am in favor of limits on feed lots, and other large commercial growing operations that produce "serious" amounts of methane and other toxic stuff, I am NOT in favor of limiting people who "grow" their own animals for food or for limited distribution (farm-to-table). I believe that there should be an allowance for those situations.