

Sarah Cordova

Please don't require farmers or homesteader to be required to submit permits to keep livestock. Instead educate people about how to properly manage livestock waste. Education people on rotational grazing and allowing the land to rest from livestock pressure. Educate people on regenerative farming practicing. A lot of people don't know any alternative ways of keeping livestock besides what is modeled in commercial livestock concentration facilities. Please educate and lift up those individuals and farmers that are practicing regenerative agriculture.