

Anonymous Anonymous

I oppose this. This will greatly impact small farms that sell directly to the consumers. Us small farmers work directly with soil conservation districts to maintain great waste management.