

Ronda W

I oppose the CAFO RULES as drafted. We need to work families who raise livestock on a small scale and provide locally sourced food for themselves and neighbors. Applying CAFO standards to small operations will be devastating to local food production and overall food security. Instead of regulation Ecology should encourage volunteer programs as we are adults that want to take care of the land and ourselves.