

Albert E Robbins

I have lived in and raised animals in Thurston County since 1946. We did not need commercial fertilizer as our animals provided it. So I concur with Okanogan, Thurston, and Yakima counties that CAFO is not beneficial except maybe in very large animal occupancy. Therefore I believe volunteer stewardship to be more beneficial to the land and people.