

June Robinson

To Whom it may concern:

I am writing in response to draft policy created by the Washington State Department of Ecology which contains proposed permitting requirements for maintaining animals and livestock. People have owned and maintained animals for EONS without needing to pay for a permit every year. Requiring a permit for an animal because they MIGHT pollute a water source is absolutely ridiculous. PEOPLE POLLUTE, not animals.