

Anonymous Anonymous

How many people are using our creeks and waterways as their personal toilets? How many are dumping raw sewage straight into the storm drains? If you allow this with no punishment or consequences, you will never solve this problem. Even on your own DOE property you are looking the other way. Start with the obvious pollution sources.