

City of Renton

The City of Renton appreciates the opportunity to comment on the preliminary draft of the Western Washington Phase II Permit for Stormwater Controls for Priority Developed Areas.

It may be challenging for jurisdictions to convince their councils and elected officials to spend money on watershed level efforts that do not benefit their own jurisdiction. Consider waiving grant matching requirements for jurisdictions that will not gain benefits in their receiving waters, but participate in the watershed effort.