

Hello my name is Katie Buchanan. I have grave concerns about what is happening to Soap lake. The levels seem to be lower and lower everytime I visit. Soap lake is so important. It has the highest mineral content in the world. It needs to be protected. The lake has been known for its healing capacities for a long time. Soap lake is a vital resource and has to be protected.