

John Roscoe

You are way, way over the line to designate any Type 3 areas in our state. This proposal is a great example of Ecology imposing the views of a tiny group of environmental extremists on all Washingtonians without a shred of evidence to support it