

Andronetta Douglass

I support proceeding with designating type III waters. The water situation and supply is changing rapidly due to the climate crisis. We need to respond quickly. The problem is worsening due to loss of glaciers and the shorter rainfall season. The crisis we have seen in Northern California is heading our way and we need to be prepared.