

June Yamrick

I urge Washington Ecology department to protect the Cascade, Green, and Napeequa river systems by dedicating them as the state's outstanding resource waters. Washington residents can then enjoy these waters now and in the future.