

Marguerite Boler

I support the designation through the Clean Water Act that prevents and New degradation of water quality. This is vital for the quality of these water systems and for the support of our salmon, and other animal/ecosystem, success.