

Matthew Dennison

I am writing you in support of the ORW designation for the Green River. The rivers and the habitat of Washington are under constant stress that degrade their future in the region. We should do everything in our power to preserve the River. The last thing we need is another scar on our wilderness