

Talking Rocks Outdoor Company

Every time I visit the wild lands south Hwy 12, whether for my own pleasure or with clients, I am struck with what a treasure we have in the forests and rivers in this region. It seems to me that extending the protection of Outstanding Resource Waters to the rivers in this area would be a significant step forward in safeguarding the unique value of this ecosystem.