

Whatcom County Democrats

Please advance with your plans for greater stream protection. With climate change causing rapid loss of our glaciers and drier summer conditions, it is essential that the headwaters of our streams benefit from undisturbed forest cover that helps retain/slow water, reduce damage from floods, and preserve salmon spawning habit.

I am the Chair of Whatcom County Democrats writing in representation of our 900 dues-paying members.