

Andrea Montgomery

Please move forward to designate outstanding resource waters in Washington State. The designation will place important conservation emphasis on these waters and help protect them for their intrinsic and habitat value and for the enjoyment and appreciation of future generations. Thank you.