

Chris Humann

You need to be transparent about designating any waters as type 3. Do not designate them without consulting private landowners and communities that would actually be impacted.