

richard weiss

Follow the best science available and review and revise often as new studies emerge to protect and restore the waterways of our state (and nation). We need clean rivers (water) as much as the fish do.