

Val Alexander

Please designate the green river as an ORW now. We, in north Clark county have a difficult time with water being in short supply and have seen the effects of that in our rivers that are critical to fish survival. The green river is an important part of fish habitat that is so important to our work of preserving fish. I am in the board of friends of the east fork Lewis river. Thank you.