

Chris Hoex

Please protect our waterways that are vital to multiple species including humans for recreational and educational purposes. Its getting harder to find areas that have not been impacted by humans in a negative way. We need these water ways protected against pollution.