

Cheryl Simmons

I am in support of adding all of the proposed bodies of water to the Tier III designation. Do not cave to industry who look at the shortsighted view of maximizing profit. We must protect these water bodies for future generations.