

wade boyd

Ecology is not being transparent.

Please pause this proposed rulemaking until transparent, objective, and robust analysis is conducted.

Ecology should not designate these waters without giving the public clear and direct information about how it is making these designations, the costs of designation, and the implications for local communities.