

Brian Sweeney

I ask that the decisions to be made on type III water bodies and the processes that come with the decisions be made public. The public has a right to know how and why these changes are being made and what effect they have on timber communities. This should be broadly discussed due to the ramifications of this on a large scale. Thank you