

Mark Kollasch

What are you doing and why? Be sure the public is completely aware and buys into your initiatives. We don't need government without representation...same as taxes without representation! What are the benefits and risks when you designate Type III waters without full transparency concerning the impacts. Who wins and who loses? Stop what you are doing until we know completely what is happening and why!