

Judith Dunham

I strongly urge the DOE to hold off on designating these rivers/waters as Tier III Outstanding Resource Waters. This designation would give the DOE almost unlimited power to restrict use of or to allow possibly deleterious uses of these waters, without knowing very much about current uses and downstream impacts. These waters are very likely already highly regulated. Why is more regulation needed? A great deal more study is needed before we enable yet another power grab by the DOE. Thank you, Judith Dunham