

Diana McAlister

My eldest brother, a champion alone skier, suffered serious circulation problems after an accident. Drs. At UW hospital planned to amputate his left leg. My mom, a 63 years resident said, -I don't think so-1-. And brought him home. He spent the summer in the lake and resumed his skiing pursuits on both legs.