

Ann Quinn

Please honor the requests of our Indigenous relations. They were here first, and need this area for their well-being , physical, emotional, spiritual. Enough suffering. Let's be responsible to them and learn too, how to live a flourishing life for all, including our natural world. It isn't "property". We are connected to it, Let's honor that.

Thank you. Bless you. May you flourish.