

Zach Stednick

I want DOE to consider stronger pollution policies for the Everett Wastewater Treatment Plant because doing so will ultimately benefit not only the residents of Everett but all people living near Puget Sound. Specifically I would like to sharply limit the amount of PBDEs, PFAS and nutrient pollution that enters the water in Everett. I live in Seattle the the health of Puget Sound is very important to me as well as current and future Washingtonians.