

Marguerite Boler

The Washington Department of Ecology has an opportunity to reduce the release of toxic chemicals like PBDEs—polybrominated diphenyl ethers found in flame retardants—and PFAS from the plant by requiring a more stringent wastewater discharge permit. I support this effort.