

Jesse McCullough

Bulk propane distribution facilities that do not manage any other petroleum hydrocarbons should be exempted from the requirement to monitoring for diesel fraction petroleum hydrocarbons as that is not a constituent of concern in propane. Currently, propane distribution facilities are required to do so per the ISGP's Table 3 section 7 because they are included in NAICS code 4247xx.