

Mario Irelan

Project is not worth using public resources. Whether that is energy connection to the port or restricted area to the public.

It will never be viable. Reducing carbon from the source like enhancing access to EV chargers is much better.